

Have You Heard?

Dorothy McCain Emsenius

Mary Culley, who had her wallet stolen from the Teachers' lounge while on yard duty at Santa School, says the money, keys and miscellaneous items it contained can all be replaced. However, the one thing she misses and can't be replaced is a picture of her husband, Bill, taken shortly after they were married, when he had all of his hair. "I'll never be able to replace that," she commented, "and neither will he!"

Noel Laverty and Ann Hubert, Albany, and Myron Hagen of Kensington, were among 3638 graduates receiving diplomas at Young University in Albany last month.

We wish them well in whatever plan for their future.

It's sad to note that Anne Truitt, Americanism chairman for the American Legion Auxiliary, Albany Post 292, had only two entries in the recent Americanism Essay Contest and both from grade school students, none in high school.

Were they too busy with their studies to enter, or was it that Americanism isn't such a popular subject anymore?

Congratulations (belated) to Albany Police Chief Ralph Jensen, who celebrated 25 years with the Albany Police Dept. on May 1. And by the way... don't forget to get your ticket for Ralph's retirement dinner, scheduled for May 15. Seating is limited, and those who wait may be sorry to be left out. Tickets at $8 each available at the Times office.

Spectators at the demolition of the old school were appalled at the slim pieces of metal (not steel) which held the concrete together—and at how easily the building crumbled under the impact of the bulldozer. Building workers weren't so strict back in 1915 when the school was built, guess, but it is frightening to think how close to disaster all children were who attended the school in the past 57 years.

Poor Jimmy Allen, popular Albany High senior and sportsman, is suffering from a badly twisted ankle and will be out of sports scene for the rest of the term, and probably out of school many of the Senior Class activities, too. What a heck of thing to happen during baseball season.

Residential Burglaries On Increase Say Police

Albany was the scene of approximately 58 residential burglaries in the first four months of this year, however, only 13 of these were by force, according to reports received from the Albany Police Dept. Burglars gained entrance through unlocked or open doors and windows in the remaining incidences.

The Police Dept. has issued warnings to residents to be sure and check their windows and doors before departing and before going to bed. There are numerous devices to keep windows open but secured, and residents are urged to protect themselves and their belongings by purchasing such a lock for security.

A rash of burglaries broke out in the City during the first week of this month, with various amounts of cash, jewelry and other items taken.

An attempted burglary at 1461 Marin took place, when someone attempted to force open a window that had been painted shut; another burglar was frightened away at 1106 Pomona, after prying a screen off a back window.

Coins, an air pistol and large and small arms ammunition were taken from a residence at 922 Nielsen; jewelry and coins from a home at 1513 Sonoma, and the vending machines at Hazel's Cafe on San Pablo Ave. were broken into with an undetermined loss.

A burglar took a purse from a home at 1311 Dartmouth, which was later found in a yard at 1103 Key Route Blvd., and the office of MacGregor Homes, at 1391 Solano was the scene of a burglary with a TV, electric clock and pocket calculator, valued at $210, taken.

However, a burglar caught in University Village Monday night, may be the key to much of the burglary action in Albany. The man, called a "hot prowler," and a professional by policemen, has spent only 13 months of the last 10 years out of jail, and it is thought he is possibly responsible for a great number of burglaries in Albany.

A neighbor heard breaking glass at 278 Wilson Street and called the police, who caught the burglar hiding on the porch of a nearby building. He had already removed a TV set, tape recorder, record player and watch from the premises and had them hidden nearby.

City and School Athletics Would Be Aided By Bonds

By Jim Scoggins

(This is the third in a series of articles explaining the issues in the special June 5 School and City Bond Election.)

Last November, I and others interested in the athletics of our community, were opposed to bond measures H and I for several reasons. The main reasons were that H and I would build a school out of town, out of county, behind a lumber yard and on our only athletic field. We have studied the new bond proposal and all of our objections have been removed. In fact the A and B bond proposal is a recreational and athletic booster's dream.

We not only gain a much needed new school, but we also gain the recreational facilities we so desperately need to keep the young minds and bodies of our children occupied. We will have a new community center that will serve all of Albany and one we can enter with pride. The center will consist of multipurpose rooms, office space and storage. It will be used primarily for meetings and special classes.

We will have a full size gym for basketball, volleyball, gymnastics and dancing. We will have an outdoor swimming pool that will be a real asset to young and old swimmers. This pool will take a lot of pressure off our overused indoor pool. We will have two tennis courts, which are badly needed. We hope these courts will be lighted for night tennis. We will have three multipurpose courts that can be used for basketball and volleyball. We know all of these outdoor facilities will be used by our young people the year around.

Last but not least, we will have two multi-purpose ball diamonds and turf sports fields. These fields will be used for many games, including touch football and soccer. The middle school will use any and all of these facilities for their physical education classes. The two ball diamonds will also serve as the new home for 16 teams of the Albany Little League Baseball.

This is a real value for the people of Albany. This is the first time in our 20 years in Albany, that the two governing bodies are in complete agreement on a bond proposal. The City Council and the Board of Education are together in their support and promotion of bond measures A and B because it is a good plan for both City and School—and that's us.

IT WAS A FIELD DAY for photographers—"the day they tore down Marin School," as spectators of all ages documented in pictures the demolition of the school where thousands of Albany children had received their elementary school education in the past 57 years. Pictured above is Albany Fireman Mike Blackwell, who attempts to capture the building quickly crumbling under the impact of the bulldozer, a picture that in all probability will end up among others in Fire Chief Gerald Brown's album of the history of Albany.

Albany Residents Invited To Drop In Concert Friday

Ten instrumental soloists and 11 ensembles from the music departments of Albany Middle School and High School will present a free "Solo and Ensemble Festival" in the choral music room at Albany High School, at 7 p.m., Friday, May 11.

This will be a "drop in" concert, open to the public, and those attending will be welcome to enter and leave as they please, thus enabling them to hear as many or as few of the performers as they wish.

Soloists will be: Laurie Gray and Ingrid Schwab, on flutes; Renata Stofka, cello; and Alyce Chamberlain and Scott Rogers, violins.

Ensemble members will include: Sandy Clark, Helen De Vogelaere, Scott Roger, Gail Twiss, Sue Bookmyer, Pam Shaw, Tia Myamoto, Cathy Mullarkey, Craig Wong and Andrew De Vogelaere. Middle School musicians will be coached by their music director, Bob Slous.

Albany High School instrumentalists, many of whom have won high honors in their recent performances at the California Music Educator's Association Solo and Ensemble Festival in Concord, will be featured in the second half of the program.

They include soloists: David Chamberlain, trombone; Greg Hazarabedian and Patricia Meissner, clarinet; Rita Kingsley, cello and Anne Nakao, flute.

High school ensemble members will be: Dana Gentz, Melanie Fine, Anna Nason, Kim Rossi, Erin Mifune, Theresa Moran, Wanda Newbreast, Jacqueline McCurn, David Chamberlain, Larry van Eckhardt, Ron Mayeda, Anne Nakao, Claudia Nausin, Suzanne Bier and Sue Gershenson.

Other ensembles will include: Judy Chaote, Bonnie Miller, Greg Hazarabedian, Geoff Chin, Liz Tice, Patricia Meissner, Helen Belden, Linda Hiscox and Sherry Berling.

The largest group on the program, a string ensemble, will be composed of violinists Joy Ng, Laura Boverhuis, Joe Cravotto, Lolly Valli, Lyla May, Marjorie Husman, Ed Hazarabedian, and Liana Chin; violists John Weigel and Sharon Bookmyer; cellists Rita Kingsley, Art Turney and Liz Lyon, and bassists Christy van Eckhardt and Jean Lyon.

Ernest Douglas, chairman of the Albany High School music department, says of the event: "One of the joys of making music comes from playing in small ensembles. We hope that the people of Albany will drop in on us Friday evening to hear the accomplishments of these fine young musicians."

NOTICE

There will be no Albany City Council meeting on Monday, May 14, due to Mayor Lewis Howell and Council members attending the Mayors' and Councilmen's Institute in Sacramento May 14 through 16. The next regular Council meeting will be held on Monday, May 21.

Jensen Dinner Site Changed

Due to the overwhelming response to ticket sales for the June 15 Ralph Jensen retirement dinner, plans have been changed and the affair will now be held at Hs Lordship's Restaurant on the Berkeley Marina, with seating capacity increased to 500.

The ticket price has also been raised to $8. However, tickets previously purchased will be honored, with no change. A no-host cocktail hour will be observed at 7 p.m., with dinner to be served at 8. Those planning to attend should make reservations as soon as possible.

Tickets may be obtained at the Albany Police Dept., 1000 San Pablo Ave.; Albany Chamber of Commerce, 1108 Solano Ave.; the Albany Times, 1240 Solano Ave.; or ticket chairman, Fern Luoma, 634 Cornell Ave., 526-1311.

Get Tickets Now For Albany Day

Free Clubhouse tickets, with just a 50-cent service charge, are still available for the May 17 "Albany Day at the Races."

Tickets may be obtained at the Albany Times office, 1240 Solano Ave.; MacGregor Homes, 1391 Solano Ave.; Max's Liquors, corner of San Pablo and Solano, or at the Chamber of Commerce office, 1108 Solano Ave.

Tickets at $6.50 each, are also available at the Chamber office, for those who wish to enjoy a delicious luncheon at the popular Turf Club before the races start at 1 p.m. Ticket price includes both admission to the Turf Club and the buffet luncheon.

Thursday Library Movie Program Set

"Thursday-Night-at-the-Movies," the free film program offered each week at the Albany Library, by Friends of the Albany Library, will offer four colorful and interesting movies tomorrow, lasting approximately 1 hour and 20 minutes.

They will include: "Japan, Season by Season;" "Premier," a tour of Germany and Austria, narrated by Skitch Henderson, to the musical accompaniment of the works of Beethoven, Strauss, Mozart & Wagner; a color short on auto safety, entitled "Too High a Price," narrated by John Daly; and "The Vegetarian Gourmet," a color film about Alan Hooker, award-winning cook and author, depicting his approach to the preparation of vegetarian food.

No books will be circulated after 6 p.m. on Thursdays, and the film program will start at 7:30 p.m. The public is urged to attend.

Tonight's Movies At the Library

Tonight's free family movies to be shown at the Albany Library are: "Fire Mountain," a funny movie about a fiery volcanic eruption, and "African Animals," featuring the big cats, great pachyderms elephants, hippos and rhinos.

The show starts at 7 p.m. and lasts approximately 45 minutes. For more information, please call the Library at 526-3120.

Council Grants Variance Over P&Z Recommendation

Lester Rust, of 809 Curtis St., was granted a variance to increase his allowable lot coverage, by the Albany City Council Monday night, although the Planning and Zoning Commission had recommended denying the request.

According to Rust, who appeared before the Council during Monday night's public hearing, he lives next door to "the man who feeds birds," a situation which makes it impossible for the Rusts to use their patio.

"You have no idea what a mess this makes of my patio," he said, referring to the bird droppings and seeds which at times almost cover the area.

Lester Rust also called attention to the design of his present living room, which because of the placement of windows, doors and fireplace, leaves no place to put furniture against the wall and makes it impossible to entertain and have adequate seating for guests.

His request to enlarge the living room and move its wall out to the existing edge of the rest of the building, to within 10 ft. of the property line, met with agreement from the Council. Councilman Richard Clark voted in favor of it, because, as he stated: "It's just a small change."

The Council also set a June 11 date for a public hearing, on the appeal of a Planning and Zoning decision to grant Mrs. Marianne Mander a home occupation use permit for 1235 Marin.

At the request of City Administrative Officer James Turner, a June 4 public hearing date was set to hear objections of notices being posted declaring public nuisances of weeds, poison oak and rubbish and debris accumulated on private property, and seeking their removal.

In other Council action, a request from Police Chief Ralph Jensen, requesting reimbursement for damage to a Police Sergeant's uniform, was approved; and Councilman Joe Carlevaro was appointed to represent the City on the Citizens' Committee, which is being formed to review the General Plan and taken overall look at the City.

Two resolutions were introduced and adopted: one appointing Catherine C. Leu as half-time clerk in the Health Dept., and the other confirming the appointment of John Palmer as permanent hoseman with the Fire Dept.

Under the good of the City, Bob Sharp commented on the hazardous grates which exist on the main thoroughfares in Albany, which could cause accidents for bicyclists. City Administrator Turner informed Mr. Sharp that the City was aware of the problem, and that the Public Works Dept. was already working on it.

The Council adjourned for an attorney-client session, following a discussion on whether it would be possible to extend the so-called "freeze" on Albany Hill, which will end on May 15. No positive decision was reached on the matter, although the Council was told by City Attorney Larry Saler that their extensions had all been used, and the only thing they could do would be to issue a new ordinance and change the zoning procedure.

Bond Talk For Booster Club

The Albany Athletic Booster Club will meet tonight, Wednesday, May 9, in Room 220 at Albany High School, to hear Bud Rooney of the Albany Park and Recreation Dept., and School Board member, Jack Rosano, discuss the bond election for a new school and for city recreational facilities. A question and answer period will follow.

Plans will also be made for the Boosters' annual Spring Awards Banquet.

All interested persons, as well as Booster Club members, are cordially invited to attend. The meeting will begin promptly at 7:30 p.m.

Forry Dinner Deadline Near

Tickets are at a minimum for the Ken Forry retirement dinner, to be held Saturday, May 12, at the Marriott Inn. However, a few may be available, and may be obtained by calling Helen Ford, Cornell School secretary, at 525-7873.

Reception and no-host cocktails will begin at 6 p.m., in the Starboard Room, with dinner served at 7:30 p.m. in the Island Room. Tickets are $8 per person.

The community is invited to be on hand to pay tribute to Kenneth Forry, who has served as Albany's superintendent of schools for the past 16 years.

Albany High In B of A Finals

Albany High School seniors, Eileen Keane and Darcy Grigsby are among the finalists in the Bank of America's 26th Annual Achievement Awards competition, with the winners to be announced at a banquet to be held Thursday, May 10, at Goodman's Hall in Jack London Square.

The area finals will bring together 36 of the East Bay's outstanding high school seniors, with a first place prize of $1,000 to be awarded in each of four study fields: liberal arts, science and mathematics, fine arts and vocational arts. Second place in each field is worth $750, while third place awards are $500. Twenty-four runners-up will each receive $250.

The judges, having already reviewed the students' academic records and extracurricular activities, will conduct interviews during the day of May 10, asking questions on topics relating to the student's specific field of study. Eileen Keane's field of study is Liberal Arts, and Grigsby's is Fine Arts.

Judges are: E. M. Brown, president of Scott-Butler; John Kilmartin, president of Mervyn's Dept. Stores; Dr. Pletcher, chairman of the Superior Strut and Hanger; Mrs. Bessie P. Drebell, a local attorney; Dr. Marvin L. Danville, optometrist; Fay W. Coleman, professor of Education and Sociology at the University of the Pacific; and Frank Ervin, general manager of Pacific Gas and Electric in Hayward.

Golden Gate Fields employees "all heart." Case in point — the shy, stray German Shepherd dog who recently took up residence in the upper parking area near the Turf Club entrance. No one could get near the dog to catch him, so employees took to leaving food out where he could get it, in hopes they could get close to him.

However, before this could hap-

... he was hit by a car and suffered a broken hip. Fearing the dog would be turned over to some agency who might do away with him, GGF employees circulated collection containers marked "GGF collection for Rover" and collected enough to pay the Berkeley Humane Society doctor to operate on the stray, who is now recovering at the home of one of the employees. Plans have been made for him to live on a Northern California ranch when he is completely recovered.

Isn't it good to know we have such nice and concerned people working in Albany?

On the sick list currently are two Albany Firemen, Dick Courtney, who is convalescing at home after a stay at Albany Hospital; and Tom Oakley, who is still off duty following corrective surgery. Oakley still can be seen around the Firehouse, however. . . . guess he just knows they can't get along without his advice.

Also still on the "not-so-well" list, is Louise Damonte, who was returned to the hospital last week by her doctor. Louise has had a hard time convalescing from a serious operation, and is now at Peralta Hospital. We all hope she will regain her strength soon and make a complete recovery.

Retired Albany Police Inspector Art Smith was operated on at Alta Bates Hospital last Thursday, for the removal of a restriction in the main artery in his neck.

He is recovering nicely, and in fact may be at home by the time this item is published, according to reports to the Police Department by his wife. We all wish him a speedy recovery and a long and happy retirement.

Another addition to the "not feeling so good list"—Raymond Anderson, who resides in Albany with his parents, Edie and Bud Belote, is in Albany Hospital and

League Champions at Albany Bowl

Champions of the Winter Leagues at Albany Bowl include:

Al Caruso was extremely pleased with his beautiful sponsor trophy which was won for him last week by his Farmer's Insurance sponsored team, and presented to one of his partners, Ray Simms. The champs consisted of George Schaber, John Taylor, Jim Hutchison, Roger Wright and Desi Lewis. From the start of the league, they turned out to be a real tough team and proved it by winning by quite a margin in points. Their high game was 1095, with a terrific high series of an even 3,000.

George's high for the season was 263-664, Roger 238-618, Desi 245-688 (which took the league high series), Jim 257-636, and John 233-613. The runners-up were sponsored by East Bay Chevrolet, and were comprised of Eddie Burcher 257-631, Randy Felix 256-683, Harry Plant 224-599, Wayne Peterson 215-367.

The Nite Owls Lower Division also had an exciting roll off, which was won by Marine Terminal No. 1, made up of Vickie Donnell, P. Jefferson, Charles Donnell, Jean and Jim McDermott. The runner-up team, sponsored by Jones Building Material, included Dawn Kelly, and Ruth, Sara, Chuck and Bob Williamson.

The Ladies Handicap League was won by Plastic Paneling. Bowlerettes were Charlotte Nichols, Lois Elmsa, Linda Markham, Jimmie Crawford and Anita Van Slochteren. Runner-up team was sponsored by Cutter Lab—Glynda Cober, Zenobia Castile, Margaret Cober, Carolyn Brown and Pat Watson.

Summer Leagues are now being formed for all members of the family, from the youngster of eight years to the youngster of 80. Come on down to Albany Bowl and try it—you'll like it.

Arthritis Drive Needs Volunteers

A $16,000 drive for funds to support the Northern California Chapter of the Arthritis Foundation's services over the coming year, will begin locally on Monday, May 14, according to John L. Gompertz, M.D., county campaign chairman.

"We are anxious to enroll volunteers to help bring the campaign to every resident," said Dr. Gompertz. "We need all the helpers we can get. Anyone who wishes to serve as a campaign volunteer to help raise funds to finance programs for the more than 550,000 children and adults in Northern California who are arthritis victims should call our campaign office at 656-9437."

The Northern California Chapter's programs include patient services and public and professional educational programs. In addition, funds are allocated for the national research program which seeks the cause and cure for arthritis.

Once again, teams of thieves have been working the surrounding area, in two major criminal activities, according to Albany Chief Ralph Jensen.

One of these schemes is what is called the "pigeon drop," wherein someone approaches the victim indicating they have just made a great deal of money. The victim is usually accompanied by a friend indicating the money may have been gotten in some illegal way by the original party who is with them.

An accomplice usually appears at this time, to suggest that

"good faith" money be put up by all parties, until an attorney can be contacted to see what should be done with the "found" money.

Of course, says the Chief, the people connected with the scheme vanish as soon as the victim puts his or her "good faith" money up. This scheme has been tried several times recently in Albany, but fortunately, the persons contacted have refused to go along with it, and have notified the police.

Chief Jensen urges any Albany citizen who is approached by anyone involved in a scheme such as this, to call the Police immediately.

Another popular scheme is what is called the fake "Bank Examiner" fraud. In this, the victim is usually contacted either by phone or in person, by someone saying that a teller at your bank is suspected of stealing. Asking for the victim's cooperation in catching the suspect, they request that the victim withdraw some money, to be redeposited later. Often the victim is told he or she will be rewarded for helping catch the crooked bank teller.

Usually those involved in this scheme will produce what appears to be authentic identification. However, they always tell the victim not to tell anyone about the transaction.

Chief Jensen warns Albany residents: "If anyone should contact you about being a bank examiner, don't give them any money. Stall them if possible, while you call the Police immediately."

"If they should come to your door, put them off by saying you will contact them later, or ask them to come back later, and call the police as soon as they leave."

'Order' Honors For Ellis-Olson

Ellis-Olson Mortuary in Albany has been accepted for membership in the International Order of the Golden Rule, for the 27th consecutive year.

The Order is an organization of carefully selected funeral directing firms throughout the world. Before being admitted, a firm must receive the written recommendation of families it has served and other professional people in the community. To remain affiliated with the Order, a firm must regularly annually.

Breakfast Planned For Mother's Day

A Mother's Day Breakfast, for the benefit of retarded children, will be held Sunday, May 13, from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. at St. Ambrose Church, 1145 Gilman St., Berkeley.

Breakfast will be served in the Church Hall, at $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for children under 12. Door prizes will be awarded.

The affair is being sponsored by the Volunteer Counselors of Camping Unlimited, to raise funds to send retarded children to summer camp at Boulder Creek in the Santa Cruz Mountains.

Camping Unlimited is a non-profit organization, which, since 1969, has provided year-round recreational therapy for some 600 retarded children each year. Guidance for these children is provided under a professionally trained supervisor, all on a voluntary basis.

Contest Open To AHS Students

Albany High School students, along with those of the other 35 senior high schools in the county, are being invited to compete in the California History Art Talent Contest, sponsored by the Native Daughters of the Golden West of Alameda County.

The contest will be held May 14 through 18 at the Cultural Arts Center, Studio One, of the Oakland Recreation Department, 365 45th St., Oakland, and is open to all students in the 10th, 11th and 12th grades, regardless of whether they are enrolled in an art class or not.

Drawings and paintings must be submitted to Studio One on Monday and Tuesday, May 14 & 15, with winners receiving their awards on Friday, May 18, at 8 p.m., from honorary chairman, Mrs. Marian McGuire, Grand Trustee of the Native Daughters of the Golden West.

Information and rules governing the contest have already been furnished to all the high schools. Additional information and forms may be obtained by calling Mrs. Myrtle Degen, 653-1015.

Prizes to be awarded will be: $25, first; $20, second; $15, third; and $5 honorable mention. Winners will also be eligible to compete with other winners throughout the State, at the annual NDGW convention in Santa Cruz, during the week of June 17, for prizes of $100, $75 and $25.
